PROCLAMATIONS.

[L.S.] E. W. HAMBER,
Lieutenant-Governor.

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

GEORGE THE SIXTH, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To Our faithful the Members elected to serve in the Legislative Assembly of Our Province of British Columbia, at Our City of Victoria—GREETING.

A PROCLAMATION.

G. S. WISMER, { WHEREAS We are de-
Attorney-General. { sired and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our People of Our Province of British Columbia, and to have their advice in Our Legislature:

NOW KNOW YE, that for divers causes and considerations, and taking into consideration the ease and convenience of Our loving subjects, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Executive Council of the Province of British Columbia, to hereby convoke, and by these presents enjoin you, and each of you, that on Tuesday, the twenty-ninth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and forty, you meet Us in Our said Legislature or Parliament of Our said Province, at Our City of Victoria, FOR THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS, to treat, do, act, and conclude upon those things which, in Our Legislature of the Province of British Columbia, by the Common Council of Our said Province may, by the favour of God, be ordained.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of the said Province to be hereunto affixed:

WITNESS, the Honourable ERIC WERGE HAMBER, Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our said Province, this twenty-fourth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty, and in the fourth year of Our Reign.

By Command.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(c.) To lease, purchase, and sell all machinery, tools, implements, apparatus, boats, and all other articles and appliances used in connection with all or any of the purposes aforesaid, or with selling or transporting the manufactured and other products of the Company, or with any of the operations of the Company:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, grant, concession, or otherwise, and to hold, subdivide, and otherwise to improve, develop, rent, sell, convey, exchange, lease, and otherwise dispose of and generally deal in lands and real estate of all and every kind and description, whether vacant, improved, or otherwise, as also any right, title, or interest therein, as also property of any other kind or description, including personal and movable property, and any rights and privileges that the Company may consider necessary for the purposes of its business; and in and upon such lands and real estate, or any part thereof, to make, erect, construct, build, operate, and maintain roads, ditches, flumes, culverts, houses, dwellings, stables, factories, mills, plants, manufactories, wharves and landings, and all other buildings and works and improvements that may be considered advisable in connection with the purposes of the Company:

(e.) To carry on the business of a hotel, restaurant, café, refreshment-room, and place of amusement, recreation, sport, and entertainment and instruction of all kinds, and any other business which can conveniently be carried on in connection therewith:

(f.) To establish and carry on a school, college, or other educational establishment, and to provide for the delivery and holding of lectures, exhibitions, classes, and conferences calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the cause of education, whether general, professional, or technical:

(g.) To subdivide any of the lands of the Company, and to lay out the whole or any part or parts thereof as a subdivision, and to dedicate any part or parts thereof for roads, highways, or rights-of-way:

(h.) To conduct, maintain, and operate a hospital or sanatorium on any lands of the Company, and to carry on any other business which can conveniently be carried on in connection therewith:

(i.) To construct, purchase, lease, charter, maintain, and operate boats of all kinds, including tug-boats:

(j.) To construct, operate, and maintain machine-shops:

(k.) To take and hold mortgages, hypothecs, liens, and charges to secure payment of the purchase price of any part of the Company's property sold by the Company, or any money due to the Company from purchasers, or advances made by the Company to purchasers for building purposes or other improvements:

(l.) To buy, sell, and otherwise deal in, either as wholesalers or retailers, farm and agricultural products, hay, grain, and feed of all kinds, milk and dairy products, fresh, canned, cured, dried, or smoked meats, fish, fruit, and vegetables of all kinds and descriptions, building materials, goods, wares, merchandise, machinery, and equipment of all kinds and descriptions whatsoever, and to carry on a general exporting and importing business:

(m.) To apply for, acquire, hold, and use water rights and water necessary for all or any of the purposes of the Company, and to develop the same:

(n.) To acquire, erect, and maintain works, plant, and machinery for the creation of power to be used in the Company's operations:

(o.) To carry on any business incidental to the full and complete use and enjoyment of the properties and works of the Company or the manufacture and products thereof, and such other business as may be deemed expedient and conducive to the interests of the Company:

(p.) To improve, manage, work, develop, turn to account, and deal in and with any property, real or personal, acquired by the Company or in which the Company is interested:

(q.) To sell, lease, convert into money, exchange, barter, grant easements, licences, or other rights over, or in any other way realize or dispose of the undertaking, property, assets, and effects of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as may be thought fit, and in particular for shares, stock, or securities of any other company, either fully or partly paid up, and to acquire, hold, and deal with any such shares, stocks, or securities, and to accept payment for any property so sold by instalments:

(r.) To amalgamate with any other company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of the undertaking or any part thereof, subject or not to the liabilities of this or any such other company, with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of all the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of this or any such other company, or in any other manner; and to enter into partnership or any arrangement in the nature of partnership, or any joint purse or profit-sharing arrangement or joint adventure with any company or person:

(s.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid in any part of the world, and either as principals or agents for others, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as trustee or agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(t.) To do all such other things as are, in the opinion of the directors, incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include (wherever the context shall so permit) any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(u.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause:

(v.) To enter into an agreement with Fred E. Lewis for the purchase of all his rights, both real and personal, in Coal Island, British Columbia, and in all chattels and movables, including boats on said island or generally used or employed in connection therewith.
